

Vermont Guardian ad Litem Volunteer Handbook 2026

Comprehensive Guide to GAL Practice in Vermont
Burlington Metro Area Focus

Updated April 2026

Contents

Program Overview: Vermont's state-administered Guardian ad Litem program, DCF structure, and court process.

Legal Foundation: 33 V.S.A. Vermont Code, dependency definitions, ICWA requirements.

Your Role as GAL: Investigation, advocacy, connection, and court reporting responsibilities.

Multidisciplinary Team: Working with judges, caseworkers, attorneys, and service providers.

Court Process: From removal through permanency - timeline and key hearings.

Hearing Types: Shelter, adjudication, disposition, review, permanency, and TPR hearings.

ICWA & Tribal Protections: Indian Child Welfare Act requirements and tribal sovereignty.

Tribal Resources: Abenaki Nation and other tribal contacts and ICWA programs.

Education Rights: School stability, special education, extended foster care.

Courtroom Practice: Before, during, and after court testimony.

Local Resources: Burlington metro area agencies and organizations.

Mental Health: Therapy providers, crisis services, psychiatric resources.

Program Overview

Vermont's state-administered Guardian ad Litem program, DCF structure, and court process.

Legal Foundation

33 V.S.A. Vermont Code, dependency definitions, ICWA requirements.

Your Role as GAL

Investigation, advocacy, connection, and court reporting responsibilities.

Multidisciplinary Team

Working with judges, caseworkers, attorneys, and service providers.

Court Process

From removal through permanency - timeline and key hearings.

Hearing Types

Shelter, adjudication, disposition, review, permanency, and TPR hearings.

ICWA & Tribal Protections

Indian Child Welfare Act requirements and tribal sovereignty.

Tribal Resources

Abenaki Nation and other tribal contacts and ICWA programs.

Education Rights

School stability, special education, extended foster care.

Courtroom Practice

Before, during, and after court testimony.

Local Resources

Burlington metro area agencies and organizations.

Mental Health

Therapy providers, crisis services, psychiatric resources.